TARIFF ON SUGAR

Southern Senator Wants All Protection He Can Get.

SOUTH'S SENTIMENT CHANGED

Want Stiff Protection—Beet Sugar Interests Also For It—Kansas' New Senator Favors Reduction on Sugar.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 26.—Mr. McEnery, of Louisiana, in the Senate today resumed discussion of the sugar schedule and dealt with the attitude of the Southern States and Southern statesmen toward the policy of protection. He said:

"That there is a change of sentiment going on in the South in relation to protection was shown recently and I hope Senators from the South who have supported protection on every industry in their States may extend the vision of their horizon and accord protection to great National interests."

Mr. McEnery spoke especially of the need of a protective tariff on lumber, which industry, he said, employed 35,000 men, producing lumber worth $44,000,000 annually.

After pointing out that Southern Senators had voted for a duty on lumber which produces a revenue of only $2,000,000 annually, Mr. McEnery called attention to the vastly greater income produced by sugar which yields a revenue of $60,000,000.

"I want to appeal to Southern Senators," he declared in ringing tones, "to abandon their absurd ideas of theories of a tariff for revenue only and vote to support the industries of the United States. Thomas Jefferson said there should be a duty on the necessaries of life because this government should not be forced to depend on any foreign country for its necessaries.

"I do not base my plea for a duty on sugar for the great revenue it brings. I put it on a higher plane, which is the necessity for the country to become independent of any foreign government for things it requires. Break down the tariff on sugar, and this country will be overrun with sugar from Europe, both refined and granulated, and it will stop every beet factory in the United States and stop the culture of cane in the State of Louisiana. Heretofore we have depended upon sugar for a tariff. Now it has grown to be a great necessity and it will enable us to supply the world's demand for sugar."

If the sugar trust, he said, had violated the law the guilty men should be put in the penitentiary. "But why crucify the people to bring down vengeance on the sugar trust?" he asked.

"What we need," said Mr. McEnery, "is some settled policy in regard to this industry. Capital is easily frightened and every time there is a revenue bill coupled with a demand for free sugar conditions are unsettled."

Mr. Bristow, the new Senator from Kansas, followed. While Mr. McEnery, a Democrat, had spoken for a high and protective rate on sugar, the Kansas Senator, a Republican, advocated a reduction. Mr. Bristow read from the testimony of the representative of the Louisiana sugar growers before the Ways and Means Committee to show that the American Sugar Refining Company fixes the price paid the growers for their product and to show that the sugar grower does not get the benefit of the tariff.

Mr. Bristow said he could not understand why the representatives of the beet sugar and cane sugar produ-

UNIVERSITY DISPUTE ENDED

Presbyterian Assembly Voted Against Complainants in Kentucky Matter—Rev. Dr. [illegible] Created a Sensation.

Library of Congress,

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savanna, Ga., May 26.—No interference with the present status of Central University of Kentucky is to be made by the General Assembly of Presbyterian church. The vote that decided this question was upon a motion to sustain the complaint of General Bennett H. Young and Rev. C. W. Somerville, of Kentucky, against the Synod of Kentucky, which, had it passed would have brought before the Assembly the whole question of its jurisdiction, and would have delved back deeply in the history of the passing of control of the University from the Synod.

The settlement was reached late this afternoon and it is possible final. The vote to sustain the complaint was lost 80 to 99. Two votes, one of them cast by former Moderator Rev. W. W. Moore, were recorded as in favor of sustaining the complaint in part. Two minutes each were allowed the commissioners to disclose their opinion on the question after the complainants and reports of the Synod of Kentucky had finished their arguments. Most of those who spoke favored the complaint while most of those who voted against it were silent.

Moderator William E. Boggs, of Atlanta, however, was decidedly against the complaint asserting that solemn compact had been entered into in regard to the school and that it would be morally wrong to break it. He said he was sure that if the complaint were sustained law suits would be sure to result in Kentucky over the school property.

Rev. J. M. Wells, of Wilmington, N. C., caused a small sensation when he used the words "tainted money" in referring to Andrew Carnegie's foundation and charging that Mr. Carnegie was an atheist, said it was taking "blood money" to accept any of it.

Rev. S. A. King, of Austin, Texas, said he regreted to see the flag of Presbyterianism torn down and that of Carnegie raised.

Dr. E. M. Green declared that a stain had been cast upon him by one paragraph of the complaint of General Young and Rev. Somerville, and that it charged him personally with an offense.

"I feel that some imputation has been cast upon me," he said. "No stain has been on my name for the fifty-six years I have been in the ministry. I have passed the three score years and ten, and will soon retire and I do not want to retire with that stain."

General Young arose and stated he would withdraw the offending paragraph but this was declined. A motion made to wipe out the paragraphs wherever n the complaint a personal reflection was made on any person.

FUNERAL OF MR. PARKER.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Garland, N. C., May 26.—The remains of the late Maj. A. B. Parker, of Parkersburg, who was so foully murdered at that place on Sunday last, were laid to rest yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Parker homestead near Cypress Creek. The services were by Rev. Dowd, pastor of Antioch church, assisted by Rev. E. B. Croven, of Siler City, formerly pastor of Antioch. Mr. W. F. Parker, of Rocky Mount, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Costner, of Lincolnton, were here to attend the obsequies.

COTTON MILL MEN ADJOURN

Two North Carolinians Among Officers Resolutions Endorsing Overman Senate Bill and National Highway Passed.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Richmond, Va., May 26.—The convention of the American Cotton Manufacturers was brought to a close this afternoon with the election of the following officers:

President—L. W. Parker, Greenville, S. C.

Vice President—C. K. Oliver, Baltimore.

Secretary and Treasurer—C. B. Bryant, of Charlotte, who has held that office since 1901.

To supply six vacancies on the board of governors due to the terms of incumbents expiring the following were chosen:

W. A. Erwin, Durham, N. C.; W. H. Harris, Pawtucket, R. I.; C. G. Tuller, Atlanta; C. H. Moody, Huntsville, Ala.; Ridgley Watts, New York, and L. D. Tyson, Knoxville, Tenn.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the Overman Senate bill placing a tax of $12 a head on all immigrants to this country, commending the idea of a National highway from Washington to Atlanta, Ga., and favoring the appointment of a committee to inquire into and report on the best method of ginning and baling cotton. The reports of the secretary and treasurer showed the Association to be in good condition, with 53 new members admitted since the last Convention.

FIREMEN'S STRIKE

Tension Inereasing Every Hour Over Situation on Georgia Railroad.

NOT A TRAIN IS RUNNING

Provision Supply in Various Towns is Growing Short—Strikers Have Sympathy of People All Along Railroad.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, May 26.—The tension in the Georgia Railroad firemen's strike is increasing with every hour's delay in settling the race question involved. This was the attitude in which negotiations for terminating the strike were conducted here today. United States mails held up since the beginning of the week, a dozen counties facing demoralization of business, and the race issue brought continually into unwholesome prominence were the factors which spurred the negotiations through hours of discussion. Although no statements were made as to the ground covered, it was learned that a very quick settlement is looked for, provided any agreement can be reached.

Governor Smith and General Manager Scott of the Georgia railroad, had a long conference this afternoon at which was discussed the feasibility of submitting the trouble to a board made up of men conversant with local conditions along the railroad. United States Commissioner of Labor Neill had his first conference with Governor Smith today.

Various towns in the strike district took inventory today of their visible supply of food. Madison reported at least 15 days of plenty in prospect. Washington reported a shortage in yeast and prices rising.

At Lithonia Mayor Brand said:

"If supplies should run short and it becomes necessary I shall simply condemn the train load of perishable goods now on the siding at Lithonia and tell the citizens to help themselves.

There are eleven cars of provisions at Lithonia and ice has been supplied to maintain the perishable portion of their contents in good condition.

In addition to the visible supplies, the towns have their visible means of transportation headed by a traction engine traveling nearly a mile and a half per hour, automobiles with daring drivers and dangerous roads, mule teams with darkey drivers and cracking whips, altogether a combination which has furnished a bright side to the strike and many a holiday prank for rural communities. This good nature of the country along the silent railroad was today a reassuring feature during the negotiations in Atlanta, for one of the gravest aspects of the strike has been the uncompromising sympathy which has backed it all along the line.

An offer of aid in moving the mails was sent to Washington today by Vice President Ball, who is conducting the strike, and who wired the postmaster general as follows:

"It is currently reported that an effort is being made to charge the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen with responsibility for interference with the United States mails on the Georgia Railroad. So far from this being true, we stand prepared to aid you in getting the mails through. I should be glad to confer with any representative of the Postoffice Department designated by you and to aid you in accomplishing this result."

The hand car which is carrying mail out of Atlanta went nearly forty miles to Union Point.

Six strike-breakers who left the employment of the Georgia Railroad Saturday, today complained to the Atlanta police commission charging that they had been brought here by misrepresentations and had been practically prisoners for several days in a hotel, finally getting into communication with strikers by notes dropped from the windows. A detective agency which has had charge of the squad of striker breakers answered the charges, declaring them untrue.

MARRIED TO FIVE WOMEN.

Fayetteville Man Sent to Penitentiary Five Years For Bigamy.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., May 26.—John Howell was today convicted of bigamy in the Superior Court and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Howell has been married five times, having four wives living, three of whom were present in court to testify against him. They were introduced to each other in a magistrate's office and photographed together by Sheriff Watson. They seemed to enjoy very much relating their various experiences with their mutual husband.

Raleigh, N. C., May 26.—Timely hitting by Smith and Sharp and steady work in the box by Wysong made it two out of three for Wilmington on Raleigh's home grounds here this afternoon, score 4 to 2. Rain once interrupted the game and the conditions were not altogether favorable for a fine article of the sport, but the game was one of tense excitement as the result was in doubt with a tied score until the eighth.

The Wilmington team, which has played great ball here, left tonight for their homes where they will engage their upper Cape Fear neighbors from Fayetteville tomorrow. But for an excusable passed ball by Wolf this afternoon the Raleigh Red Birds would undoubtedly have suffered another near-shut out.

Sharp opened the game for Wilmington with a neat single to right which he spoiled by trying to stretch it into a two-bagger; Streaser flew out to right and Smith fouled out to third. For Raleigh Dawson was safe on error of Sharp and was sacrificed by Crozier and Hoffman, scoring on a passed ball with Murray at bat, Murray subsequently fanning.

Brodie drew a pass in the second for Wilmington and was sacrificed by Levy, but died on second while Wolf and Simmons flew out to left. For Raleigh Brumfield and Hoover fanned and Haas flew out to right.

In the third Sharp redeemed himself with a hit to centre for three bases after Fox was out pitcher to first and Wysong had fanned, but Streaser ended the hope pitcher to first. For Raleigh Wrenn flew out on a sensational catch to left; Brown fanned; Dawson drew a pass and while Crozier was at the bat, time was called on account of rain. When play was resumed after about ten minutes, Crozier was out short to first.

Wilmington tied the score in the fourth when Captain Smith led off with a three-bagger to left and scored after Brodie had popped out, on a long fly-out by Levy to left. Wolf was out short to first. For Raleigh, Hoffman was out second to first; Murray hit safely over second, but Brumfield was out short to first and Hoover, second to first.

Simmons and Fox fanned in succession in the fifth and Wysong was out second to first. For Raleigh, Haas flew out to left, Brown to short and Wrenn fanned.

In the sixth Sharp fouled out to catcher, Streaser fanned and Smith was out pitcher to first. For Raleigh Dawson fouled out to catcher, Crozier hit safely to left; Hoffman bunted safely to pitcher, but Murray flew out centre and Brumfield was out second to first.

Seventh—Brodie out third to first, Levy short to first and Wolfe flew to left. For Raleigh Hoover flew out to first; Haas walked; Wrenn fanned; Brown hit to third, forcing Haas at second.

It was in the eighth that Wilmington won the game. Simmons bunted to pitcher and was safe; Fox drew a pass; Wysong fanned and with two men on bases, Sharp cracked out a drive to center for three bases, scoring Simmons and Fox. Then after Streaser flew out to right, Captain Smith lined out a double to centre and Sharp scored. Brodie flew out to left. Raleigh made a hard fight for it in her half, Dawson leading off with a single to to centre, followed by a double by Crozier, bringing in the run but Wysong steadied and Hoffman was out pitcher to first, Murray second to first and Brumfield, short to first.

In the ninth, Brandon relieved Brown in the box with the hope of turning the tide and Levy flew out to catcher; Wolfe flew out to first and Simmons was out pitcher to first. It was in the last half of the ninth that Raleigh's hopes after being keyed up to a high pitch were shattered by the heady work of "Lefty." Hoover led off with a hit to centre; Haas flew out to first; Wrenn hit safely to cen-

NEGRO'S FUTURE IN SOUTH

President Taft Says Conditions Grow Better and Brighter—Negro Race Valuable Asset in the South—His Address.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 26.—Speaking to the colored graduates of Howard University in this city today, President Taft declared that never at any time has the future of the negro, as a race appeared more hopeful and bright than at the present day. The President impressed upon his hearers the fact that it is for the negroes themselves to work out their own future and to make themselves valuable citizens in the communities in which they live.

Conditions for the negro in the South, the President said be believed are growing better and better. Southern people of the better class are coming to look more and more upon the negro race as one of their most valuable assets, Mr. Taft declared, and he again urged upon the negro the importance of gaining the respect and friendship of the white people among whom he is to live. The task of educating the negro, and especially educating the leaders among the race, the President asserted was a debt owed by the government; a debt only too difficult or re-payment because of the constitutional limits of the government in dealing with the individual.

When the commencement exercises were ended he was escorted to the foundation of the new Carnegie library of the University, where he officiated at the laying of the cornerstone.

In the course of his address President Taft said: "Through the South one of the things that is essential is the cultivation of greater sanitation and greater attention to the laws of hygiene among the colored race. What they need in the South is a great many more physicians of their own color and race to tell them how to live.

"The benefit that teachers educated here can do to their race, goes without saying. Of course, the basis on the education of the colored people is in the primary schools and in the industrial schools—in schools framed after Hampton and Tuskegee. In those schools must be introduced teachers from such university institutions as this, and it is in furnishing the material for the faculties of those smaller—not smaller, but less ambitious schools—that such an institution as this shall have its chief function.

"I say these things with a good deal of empasis because I know there are many who dispute the wisdom of large contributions to universities of the colored race like this, and at one time I was very much perplexed with the argument to know whether or not it was proper, but there are four universities in this country besides Howard with an endowment that does not exceed $250,000 and there are ten million negroes here.

"I am delighted to think, because I have been in the South a good deal of late and have studied some of the conditions there, that they are getting better and better for the negro race in certain respects that are not published to the world but that really affect very much the conditions of those who live there. In all the growing communities of the South—I mean where there is a touch of the modern and a touc of progress and a touch of civilization—the white men of progress are beginning to appreciate the advantages of having a class like the colored men there. They are anxious that they have an industrial education. They are anxious that they

HALIFAX HAS FOUL MURDER

Evidence of Murdered Man's Wife Credited as False—Assassin Re-Arrested After Acquittal—A Woman in The Case.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 26.—News has just reached this city of a sensational killing that occurred last Sunday near Bellamy's Mill, in Halifax county. Levy Marriott was the victim and Charles Flannigan is charged with having fired the shot that caused his death.

Flannigan, according to the report received here, had gone to Marriott's home where part of the morning was spent. Flannigan went for a drive with Mrs. Marriott and upon his return was cursed by Marriott. Flannigan bore the cursing but when Marriott told him he must leave the house drew a revolver and fired, killing Marriott instantly.

Monday a hearing was given Flannigan at Glenview and he was discharged, the killing having been held justifiable, Mrs. Marriott's testimony was such as to influence this judgment. Subsequently, however, she stated that she had been promised by Flannigan that her husband's funeral expenses would be paid and that she would be supported for life if she would testify in Flannigan's favor. Proceeding upon her altered story of the killing the authorities again arrested Flannigan and another hearing is to be given him.

For only seven days will present prices prevail at Gaylord's. **

ELECTION CARRIES

Every Ward and Precinct in County, Save Two, For Public Schools.

232 MORE THAN NECESSARY

New Hanover Redeems Herself Handsomely—Great Interest in the Result—Work by Boys' Brigade—Campaign.

Every ward, township and precinct in the county save two, one of these being lost by a single vote, gave substantial majorities for schools in the special tax election held throughout New Hanover yesterday, 232 votes more than were necessary having been rolled up for the cause of public education.

It was a strenuous battle by a few public spirited citizens with the combined forces of our old friend, General Apathy, and local prejudice, the nemesis of many a community effort, against them, but practically without help or encouragement the friends of the schools at a sacrifice of their time and personal interest waged a relentless warfare with the opposing forces and won a magnificent victory. The two townships against the measure were Federal Point in the extreme lower end of the county, where only 10 out of a registered vote of 27 were cast for the schools, and Cape Fear township, where only one vote was needed to give the majority for the schools. Every other ward, precinct and township in the county went for the tax by good majorities, the closest shave having been in Fifth ward, where only four more votes than were necessary were cast. On account of the very heavy registration in that ward, the result was doubtful with the probabilities that the tax would be defeated there, but good friends of the schools, including a big delegation from the Boys' Brigade headed by the indefatigable "Johnnie" McAllister, concentrated their efforts there and the tax was carried. The Brigade also had detachments at other polling places and did much toward "getting the vote out."

The total registered vote in the county was 2,218 and of that, 1,110 were required to carry the election. As an actuality 1,341 votes were cast for the tax, the majority being 232. The votes actually cast against the schools in the entire county were only 234 but the 643 voters who stayed at home counted against the schools, though it is fair to assume many of them were in favor of the tax, but did not take the trouble to go to the polls and exercise their franchise. The official vote as received last night from all the polling places in the county is as follows:

| Precincts | For | Against | Reg. |
|---|---|---|---|
| First Ward | 201 | 58 | 351 |
| Second Ward | 168 | 13 | 251 |
| Third Ward | 304 | 23 | 446 |
| Fourth Ward | 194 | 20 | 280 |
| Fifth Ward | 317 | 78 | 625 |
| Delgado | 48 | 14 | 87 |
| Masonboro | 53 | 3 | 65 |
| Cape Fear | 22 | 5 | 45 |
| Federal Point | 10 | 14 | 27 |
| Harnett | 24 | 6 | 41 |
| Total | 1,341 | 234 | 2,218 |
| Necessary to carry | | | 1,110 |

According to law, one of the inspectors at each polling place will meet tomorrow noon at the Court House as a Board of Canvassers and officially declare the result as given by them last night as above. The result will then be certified to the County Commissioners by the County Board of Education and in making the levy on June 1st for the county, they will include 12c on the $100 valuation of real and personal property and the proportion of 36c on the poll for school purposes. This will be amply sufficient to run the schools for the full term of eight months and means that Wilmington will take no step backward in the cause of education.

There was great interest in the outcome of the election and the 'phone bell at the Star office until a late hour last night was kept a-jingle for the latest information. In fact, so many were the inquiries early in the night, that it was impossible to gather the returns from the polling places until everybody had been assured that the election had been carried. Many of these inquiries came from the children themselves who were overjoyed at the news that the schools will not be closed. All honor is due these self-sacrificing gentlemen of the community who have worked in and out of season for the glorious victory achieved for the community in the election yesterday.

President Taft has directed the detail of Captain William R. Dashiell of the 24th Infantry as professor of military science and tactics at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va., Sept. 15th., relieving Captain George H. Jamerson.

MR. TAFT'S STATESMANSHIP.

We note this paragraph in the editorial columns of the Danville, Va.) Register, (Democrat.):

"We are constrained to believe that in practical politics the President is as guileless as a child."

The Register probably forgets that Mr. Taft has been a politician all his life and has won at it. His ability, combined with his ambition, and evidently a certain amount of adroitness and astuteness in matters political, won for him many political distinctions, the one now held by him being the chiefest in the greatest government on earth, probably with one exception. Of course, he is bound to have had friends but evidently he knew how to win their support.

It is nothing against a man either to have ambitions or to take a hand in politics, and certainly it is fortunate for the Republic that our political system brings to the front such men as Mr. Taft. Let us incline to the belief, however, that President Taft, not the politician, is inaugurating a broad policy in the White House, and is not playing "practical politics." He appears to be trying to do what is right, and we rather opine that this is what makes it appear that "in practical politics the President is as guileless as a child."

We have made up our mind to regard President Taft as not practicing any politics at the White House, at least from the standpoint of a partisan. President McKinley, to a certain extent, eschewed partisan politics as having nothing in common with the exalted position which he occupied as the President of the American people and not as the President of the Republican party. President Roosevelt started off with fair promises to be the President of all the people, but after all it remained for him to scandalize his administration with the most unscrupulous political thimble-rigging. Therefore, it is with some relief that President Taft is pursuing a broad policy and not engaging in practical politics.

It is gratifying to note that President Taft's policy in handling the Southern situation is meeting the approval of the Northern as well as the Southern press. He has divorced politics from the White House, and all praise to him for it. Even the partisan Republican New York Tribune has a good word for the President's policy and approves it as broad statesmanship. Says the Tribune:

"In his recent speeches in Virginia and North Carolina President Taft laid natural emphasis on the policy which he is carrying out in dealing with the sectional issue and with Southern political appointments. That policy was outlined in his addresses last Winter at Augusta, Charleston and New Orleans and was elaborated in his inaugural address on March 4. It consists, briefly, of a determination to let the people of the Southern States see that the national administration does not stand toward them in an attitude of aloofness and antagonism, but, on the contrary, wants them to consider the Federal government their government and the Federal officers their officers. To give practical effect to his policy the President promised to make no appointments to Federal office in the South which would not be acceptable to local sentiment there as Northern appointments made by Democratic administrations have been to local sentiment in Republican communities in the North. Since March 4 President Taft has made his words good with deeds. In his choice of a Collector of the Port at Charleston, a Federal Civil Service commissioner, a judge for the Eastern District of North Carolina, a postmaster in Richmond and other Federal officers he has shown that he aims at appointing to office Southerners—whether Democrats or Republicans—who command the entire respect of their communities and who possess the highest qualifications for the public service. The extreme kindliness with which the President has been received this week in the South proves that his policy has won public approval and largely banished old sectional and partisan prejudices. The South is almost a unit in regarding the President as a friend and well-wisher who wants to do what is just and fair more for its own sake than for any advantage which may accrue to him politically or to the Republican party.

"A policy of justice and liberality will in the long run benefit the leader and party practicing it. President Taft is doubtless satisfied that in giving due weight in appointments to public opinion in the South he is paving the way there for greater tolerance in politics and the creation everywhere of two political parties representing genuine divisions on public questions."

The Tribune has the right conception of President Taft's policy. He is practicing statesmanship and not politics, and we prefer to believe that he is acting from a broad and patriotic conception of his serious duties in the exalted office of President of the United States.

It will be found that the people of the South fully appreciate the high motives of President Taft in appointing representative men in the South to Federal positions.

AMERICAN COTTON MANUFACTURERS.

The annual meeting of the American cotton manufacturers in Richmond this week emphasizes anew the wonderful growth of the cotton mill industry in the South, and will renew interest in the immense possibilities for the industry that lie in the future.

In an editorial welcoming the cotton mill men to Richmond the Times-Dispatch makes this reference to the tremendous growth of cotton manufacturing in our favored part of the country:

"The business of cotton manufacture is moving southward, as it should. Virtually all the cotton raised in this country, and nearly all the world's supply, is produced in ten Southern States. The logical place for manufacture is as near as possible to the raw supply. Various reasons, which need not be gone into now, for a long time prevented the South from taking advantage of its opportunities in this direction. But the situation is very different today. At one time cotton manufacture was entirely in the hands of New England. Now a list of the five chief cotton manufacturing States in the Union includes three Southern States—South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia. Massachusetts alone makes more cotton cloth than South Carolina. This tells the story of less than thirty years' progress. In 1880 $21,000,000 was invested in cotton factories in the South. Last year the investment was reckoned at $266,500,000. The two Carolinas between them now have 514 textile mills operating 6,522,602 spindles and 147,744 looms."

What has been accomplished in cotton manufacturing in the South is but the beginning of the industry. The Southern States will yet lead the world in the manufacture of cotton and it is natural as well as logical to hope for the day when we will manufacture practically all the cotton we grow. The mills are coming to the field of the raw supply and it is natural for the manufacturers to want to build their mills where the cotton grows.

Charlotte is already the centre of the cotton mill industry in the South, and it is not necessary to predict that this enterprising North Carolina city will easily hold that pre-eminence. Millions of dollars have been invested in hydro-electrical development in a radius of 100 miles of Charoltte, and with the great supply of power secured by electrical transmission from the numerous waterpowers on a half dozen rivers it is easy to foresee that Charlotte ultimately is to be the biggest manufacturing centre in this country. A little study of the situation will convince most any one of the great possibilities which the future holds in store for Charlotte.

President Taft defiantly announces that he will go right on appointing Democrats to office in the South, as he is determined to name only the best men for the Federal positions. As we Democrats wish to aid him in getting hold of the best men, no Democrat, so far, has had the heart to decline any appointment that comes his way.

A movement is on foot to start a boom for the nomination of Governor Judson Harmon, of Ohio, as the Democracy's Presidential candidate in the next national campaign. He would make a good one, but by the time it comes to make a nomination the woods will be full of good Presidential timber.

Anna Held, who has made a fortune on the stage, advises young girls against a stage career. Might as well advise country boys not to go to the city, when they know that many a country boy has won fortune and distinction in all the cities of America.

Senator Dolliver still insists that there should be a considerable reduction of the tariff duty on wool. This would assure a larger supply for the use of Senators when it comes time for them to pull the wool over the eyes of the people.

"The Republicans of North Carolina can whistle to keep up their courage," says a Northern contemporary. If they could only wet their whistles they could do it more effectively.

Ex-President Roosevelt receives $1 a word from his publishers. If the average woman were to get a dollar a word for what she could dictate she would make more than Roosevelt.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—The automobile will do more for good roads than volumes of literature and demonstrations of road machinery.—Atlanta Journal.

—Five hundred illegal marriage licenses have been issued in a North Carolina town. A cynic would remark that it would apparently be unnecessary to get illegal ones, considering how easy it is to be legal about it.—Atlanta Journal.

—United States Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver, of Iowa, is to deliver the commencement address at Trinity College, Durham, N. C., June 9. As one of the "insurgent" Republican Senators, Mr. Dolliver's visit South will be watched with interest.—Macon Telegraph.

—Judge Long it was, we believe, who said, after holding a lengthy term of court in Greensboro this spring, that he thought he had as well make up his mind to take up permanent residence in that city. He comes very near doing so while riding that circuit whether or not he likes the idea. Beginning next Monday he will hold court there for five consecutive weeks—a criminal term of one week, a civil term of two weeks and a special term of two weeks. What splendid pickings the lawyers must find in Guilford county?—Charlotte Observer.

—It is a common criticism of the Republican machines in the Southern States that they don't want their party in those States to grow in power. But it is something new to find Democratic Senators and Representatives from the South charged with not really desiring the triumph of their party in national elections. The New York Evening Post virtually makes such a charge and The New York World says that "unfortunately there is much evidence in support of such a theory." If the theory is correct, it is up to the Democracy of the South to change the personnel of its representation at Washington.—Greensboro Telegram.

—It is true, as the Charlotte Evening chronicle says, that "the celebration was not in the nature of a Republican jubilee, and it was never intended to be so", but that is no reason why the Republican leaders of North Carolina should have absented themselves from the festivities. They were not missed, it is true, but they ought to have known better, and if the authorities shall come to the conclusion that they are not worthy of further recognition in the distribution of Federal patronage, they can only blame themselves for selecting an occasion of general jubilation to emphazie their personal disappointments.—Charleston News and Observer.

—When she met him at Charlotte last week Mrs. Stonewall Jackson spoke to Taft as "the harmonizer of all our hearts," wherefore according to the Evening Chronicle of that town, he is now being called "The Great Harmonizer," and in the opinion of the Baltimore Sun this greeting "manifested the spirit of the Southern visit," and "the reception which met him everywhere from the time he crossed the Potomac until his return showed that the entire population was glad to meet the Harmonizer." This is true, and if Mr. Taft is as bright as we take him to be he will make the most of his opportunity.—Charleston News and Courier.

TWINKLINGS.

—Madame—Oh, doctor, I owe you my life. The Doctor—But there is my bill also, madame.—Le Rire.

—"It's the unexpected that always happens." "Oh, I don't know. Somebody always claims to have predicted it."—Boston Herald.

—Giles—Pecken had a bad case of matrimonial dyspepsia. Miles—How's that? Giles—His wife doesn't agree with him.—Chicano News.

—"Pa!" "Well?" "What is conscience?" "A thing that we always believe ought to bother the other fellow."—Cleveland Leader.

—Stenographer—My employer is brutal to me. Friend—Mercy! Does he drink? Stenographer—No—he eats candy. And he does it while he is dictating to me.—Cleveland Leader.

—Judge—You have not established the prisoner's insanity. Attorney—But, your honor, we mean to introduce witnesses to show that the prisoner habitually argues politics with women.—Puck.

—"The first day out was perfectly lovely," said the young lady just back from abroad. "The water was as smooth as glass, and it was simply gorgeous. But the second day was rough and—er—decidedly disgorgeous."—Everybody's Magazine.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Fayetteville Man With Multiplicity of Wives—Successor to Judge Connor—Oil Inspectors—Commencement at St. Mary's.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 26.—John Howell, the white man who was confronted at his trial in Fayetteville by three living undivorced wives, was brought here today and committed to the State's Prison to serve five years for his careless matrimonial escapades. He was assigned to work in the brick yard where a wheelbarrow will be his daily companion.

He was brought here by Deputy Sheriff J. C. Culbreth who carried back with him William Tyndall, another middle-aged white man who was arrested here last night on a warrant sworn out by his father-in-law in Fayetteville on the charge of abandoning his wife and five little children. He had $35 in cash when arrested and says that is all he has in the world. but that if the prosecution will be withdrawn he will go back to his family and do the best he can for them. The officer expects that Tyndall will be given another chance before he is prosecuted in the courts.

The Bank of Cary, this county, is organized with F. R. Gray president and N. C. Hines cashier. The bank will begin business June 1st with $20,000 capital.

Rev. F. M. Shamburger having been obliged to resign his pastorate here at least for the remainder of this year on account of a nervous breakdown including a facial paralysis, Rev. W. A Stanbury, a promising young Methodist minister, has been assigned to this pastoral work by the presiding elder. The family of Rev. Mr. Shamburger retains the use of the parsonage for the year. He has gone to Biscue to be treated by his brother who is a practicing physician there.

President John A. Mills, of the Raleigh and Southport Railroad, has been named as receiver for The Zebulon Lumber Co., of which the assignment papers show $13,000 liabilities and $12,000 assets. The company has been doing an extensive business in this and Harnett counties for several years .

For the graduating exercises at St. Mary's School this morning at 11 o'clock the commencement address was delivered by Rt. Rev. William Alexander Curry, Bishop of the Diocese of South Carolina. Diplomas were presented to Miss Sallie Haywood Battle, Miss Georgia Stanton Hales, Miss Minnie Leary, Miss Julia Louise McIntyre, Miss Eva Rogerson, Miss Frankie Lenor Self. The marshals for the occasion were Miss Annie Carolina Wood, Miss Iva Jeane Rogerson, Miss Bessie, Smedes Erwin. Miss Mary Parker Bourne, Miss Mildred Barden, Miss Bessie Wilson Arthur, Miss Hallie Jordan Carrison.

Now that the appointment of Judge Henry Groves Connor has been confirmed by the Senate, the resignation of Judge Connor as associate justice of the Supreme Court is expected at any time. It is considered, too, that simultaneous with the announcement of the resignation, Governor Kitchin will appoint his successor. Furthermore it is the general opinion that Mr. J. S. Manning, of Durham, who was the Governor's manager in his gubernatorial campaign, has the offer of the appointment. That he will accept no one doubts.

At the Governor's office mum is the word, the only intimation being that the appointment will not be held in suspense any longer than the resignation can be considered and accepted. However, the friends of Judge W. R. Allen and other aspirants for the appointment have not given up hope and are striving in every way to impress on the Governor the wisdom of giving the appointment to their candidate.

On June 2nd the semi-annual meeting of the State Board of Agriculture will be held and at that meeting there will be the appointment of the oil inspectors under the new State law. It is expected that there will be about nine of these, the number being discressionary with the board to the maximum of ten. Some weeks ago the statement was made that there were three hundred applications for these appointments. Since then many more have been filed and the clerks say they have quit counting and they don't know how many are on file. Five hundred is probably a safe guess now.

Governor Kitchin grants a commutation from sentence of death to life imprisonment in the case of Charles Federell, colored, under sentence to be hanged at Winston-Salem May 28th for wife murder. Commutation is on the ground of at least strong indication at the time of the killing that he was insanely jealous.

SCHOONER ON FIRE

She Sailed From Georgetown For Boston.

Jamestown, R. I., May 26.—With her afterpart ablaze, the three masted schooner Aetna, Georgetown, S. C., for Boston, with lumber, was towed up to the docks here today by the steamer Westside. The Jamestown fire department and the crew of the tug Solicitor got the fire under control before it communicated to the cargo, but the schooner was badly damaged. The fire broke out in the cabin from some unknown cause last night. The Aetna is 297 tons net.

Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurlock, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years Kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a godsend to weak, sickly run-down or old people. Try them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

BAPTIST UNION MEETING

Interesting Gathering at French's Creek Church This Week.

A party from Wilmington including several Baptist ministers and delegates will leave this evening on the steamer City of Fayetteville for French's Creek church, Pender county, where a Union meeting will be in progress for several days. A good programme has been arranged for this gathering and it will be well attended.

Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church, will take as his subject, "Christ with us, the Advantages Of," Rev. J. A. Smith, "Christ's Mission in the World," and a sermon will be preached by Rev. G. A. Martin, pastor of Southside Baptist church, on Friday night. The meeting will end Sunday night and it is expected that there will be a large attendance of delegates to go from this city and district.

Oxford Orphanage Singing Class.

The singing class of the Oxford Orphanage will give a concert in the Academy of Music Friday night, June 4th. The class has been to Wilmington many times and the concerts never fail to draw large audiences. The entertainment this year will be equal to, if not superior to any of the former years. Messrs W. P. Oldham and R. C. Cantwell compose the local committee in charge of the arrangements for the concert.

Funeral of Infant.

The funeral services over the remains of Audrey V. Potter, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter, were held from the residence, 517 Surry street, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. K. D. Holmes, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist Church. The interment followed in Bellevue cemetery.

DIED.

MAHN—At the family residence, 413 Red Cross street, Wednesday morning at 7:15, Mrs. M. M. MAHN. Funeral from residence this (Thursday) morning at 10:30 o'clock, and interment in Oakdale.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The schooner yacht Grace, bound from Florida to New York, is spending a day at Southport to receive repairs.

—The schooner Charles K. Buckley, Capt. Fletcher, cleared light yesterday for Darien, S. C., to receive cargo of lumber for northern markets.

—The steam yacht Veleda, with Capt. B. F. Folke and family aboard, bound from New York to Mobile, Ala., arrived in port yesterday to spend a few days and for provisions and repairs.

—The Sunday Schools of the Advent Christian Church and the Christian Science Church held their annual outing at Lumina yesterday and the day was delightfully spent by both parties. There were 75 pupils from the Advent Christian Church, and about 40 from the Christian Science Church.

—The steamer Wilmington will make a moonlight trip to Bald Head Lighthouse and out to sea Tuesday evening, June 1st, under the auspices of Circle No. 4, of Fifth Street Methodist Church, and it is expected that a large number will enjoy the outing. The boat will leave at 7:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be served on the boat.

—With the compliments of Dr. Charles Franklin Strosnider, who is pleasantly remembered here, the Star acknowledges with thanks an invitation to the commencement exercises of the departments of medicine, law, dentistry and pharmacy at the University of Maryland, the date being Monday, May 31st, in the Academy of Music.

—Among yesterday's arrivals at the Colonial Inn were Messrs. J. H. Moore, A. B. Croom, Jr., and Mrs. W. M. Sykes, of Burgaw; W. L. Robbins, of Phoenix; L. H. Harrison, of Marines; Mrs. D. C. Clark, of Chadbourn; Miss Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lyon, of Whiteville, and E. G. Carrier, of Scott's Hill, most of whom came down for the May Music Festival.

DANCE FOR BANKERS.

Tidewater Power Company Arranges Event in Honor of Carolinians.

The Tidewater Power Company will give a dance at Lumina on Thursday evening, June 17th, complimentary to the members of the South Carolina Bankers' Association and members of their families. Attractive invitations were issued yesterday to the event, reading as follows: "The Tidewater Power Company invites you to attend the dance to be given complimentary to the South Carolina Bankers' Association at Lumina, Wrightsville Beach, N. C., Thursday evening, June the seventeenth, nineteen hundred and nine."

On the back page of the invitations is a handsome original engraving designed by Mr. Irving C. Hudson, superintendent of the gas department of the company, representing a bag of money fastened with a pad-lock. It is printed in two colors and is very attractive. On the bag is a picture of a man sitting on silver dollars and holding one in his hand. Around the picture is printed, "Bankers dance, June 17th, at Lumina."

SLOW PROGRESS IN COURT.

Entire Day Consumed in the Case of Austin Against Gore.

The entire day yesterday in the Superior Court was consumed with the hearing of the case of Julia Austin against C. D. Gore, which was begun Tuesday afternoon. When court reconvened yesterday morning the taking of testimony for the plaintiff was resumed and was completed at the morning session, at the conclusion of which witnesses for the defendant were examined. The taking of the testimony was concluded about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the speeches of the two attorneys in the case were made before adjournment for the day, Geo. L. Peschau, Esq., for the plaintiff and Marsden Bellamy, Esq., for the defendant. Several other speeches are to be made this morning after which the judge will deliver his charge and the case will be given to the jury.

Real Estate Transfers.

Two deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: The Murchison National Bank to the People's Savings Bank, for $10 and other considerations, the lot, building and fixtures on the northwest corner of Front and Princess streets, the size of the lot being 42 1-2x66; Richard W. Price and Bettie K. Price to Edward H. Kidder, of New York; George W. Kidder, of Wilmington, and Gilbert P. Kidder, of Seattle, Wash., trustees of the estate of the late Edward Kidder, for $100 and other considerations, lot on eastern line of Fifth, 141 feet north of Orange street, 40x120 feet in size, together with the buildings thereon.

Timber Injunction Case.

Before Judge W. R. Allen in chambers during the noon recess of Superior Court yesterday, two timber injunction cases from Pender county were heard. The cases were continued from a hearing held in Clinton. A further hearing of the cases will be given some time next week. C. E. McCullen and E. L. Larkins, Esqs., of Burgaw, represent the plaintiffs in each case, and Henry L. Stevens, Esq., of Warsaw, and C. D. Weeks, Esq., of this city, appear for the defendants. The plaintiffs in each action are seeking injunctions against the defendants to prevent them from cutting timber.

One Defendant in Court.

James Bethea, colored, was the lone defendant before the Recorder yesterday morning. He was tried on three charges, disorderly conduct, trespass and damage to personal property. He was charged with breaking up a number of dishes belonging to Annie Fennell, colored. Judgment was suspended in the first two cases and in the latter he was given six months on the county roads.

RESIGNATION OF DR. HALE

Accepted With Resolution and Expressions of Regret—Leaves Monday Evening With Family for Dallas, Texas, Charge.

At a special and largely attended meeting of the First Baptist Church last night, the recent resignation of the pastor, Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., was formally considered and accepted with regret, effective next Sunday, Dr. Hale and family leaving on the afternoon Seaboard train on Monday evening for Dallas, Texas, where he becomes pastor of the McKinnie Avenue Memorial Church.

In addition to a number of individual expressions of regret and sorrow at the loss of their pastor by a number of members of the church, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

Whereas, it has become, in his own judgment and strong personal conviction, the duty of our beloved pastor, Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., to sever his pastoral connection with us to accept at once a unanimous call to Dallas, Texas, and whereas he has tendered his resignation as pastor of this church; therefore, be it

Resolved. First. That this church regrets the necessity of accepting said resignation for eternity alone can reveal the vast amount of good accomplished by Dr. Hale during his pastorate here. During the five and one quarter years of his pastorate he has developed the church along all lines of Christian work, and received into its fellowship over 700 members; for which we shall ever love and honor him.

Second. That we regard our retiring pastor, Dr. Fred D. Hale, as one of the strongest defenders of the faith once delivered to the Saints who has ever lived and labored in this section, and that his strong defence of temperance and civic righteousness against fearful odds and violent opposition will forever live in the minds and hearts of all who love the Lord Jesus Christ in truth and sincerity, and we believe that in coming years the fruits of his labors will appear when the clouds and mist of sinful rebellion against God's law shall have passed away.

Third. That during his stay with us as a bold and fearless pastor and safe leader he has gained the high esteem of the church and all good people who, like himself, believe in honoring the Crucified and Ascended Lord.

Fourth. That we commend him in Christian love to the brethren he leaves us to serve, and to all churches and congregations whereever he may hereafter cast his lot.

Fifth. That a copy of these resolutions be presented to Dr. Hale, and that a copy also be sent to the Biblical Recorder, Dallas and Wilmington papers for publication.

Committee.

A committee was appointed last Sunday to take into consideration the matter of Dr. Hale's successor, but as yet there has been no report from this committee. Dr. Hale will preach his farewell sermon to the congregation on Sunday night and the public is cordially invited to hear him.

BOYS' BRIGADE EXCURSION.

Steamer Wilmington Will Make Three Trips to Carolina Beach.

The Boys' Brigade excursion to Carolina Beach on June 2nd will be the premier outing of the early Summer and will doubtless be largely attended. The steamer Wilmington will make three trips at 9:30 A. M., 2:30 and 7:30 P. M., this schedule being arranged to enable all who desire to take advantage of this excursion.

The public is invited and special attention will be given to ladies and children. Some features arranged by the committee from the Boys' Brigade will be music, dancing and refreshments. It promises to be a most delightful trip and the fare for the round trip is only 25 cents.

Japanese Dance.

Mr. E. C. Hudson, superintendent of the gas department, has just designed handsome and most unique invitations which have just been issued by the Tidewater Power Co., announcing a Japanese Dance at Lumina on the evening of June 8th. The design for the engraving is printed on red with a half-border of Japanese wood, while the art piece is a Jap rope-walker in all the delights of a successful performance. The letters of the invitation are printed horizontally in characters resembling the Japanese script.

J. HICKS BUNTING DRUG COMPANY SUCCESS.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company, the enterprising druggists rather than await the ordinary methods of introduction, urged the Dr. Howard Co., to secure a quick sale for their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia by offering the regular 50c bottle at half-price.

So much talk has been caused by this offer, and so many new friends have been made for the specific that the Dr. Howard Co. have authorized druggist J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company to continue this special half-price sale for a limited time longer.

In addition to selling a 50c bottle of Dr. Howard's specific for 25c J. Hicks Bunting Drug Company have so much faith in the remedy that they will refund the money to anyone whom it does not cure.

When your head aches, your stomach does not digest food easily and naturally when there is constipation, specks before the eyes, tired feeling, giddiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, heart burn, sour stomach, roaring or ringing in the ears, melancholy and liver troubles Dr. Howard's specific will cure you. If it does not, it will not cost you a cent.

This store will close at 6 P. M. during June, July and August.

PLANS THEATRICAL SEASON

Mr. S. A. Schloss Booked Fine List of Attractions For His Circuit. Owns New Play—Remodel Academy Here.

Mr. S. A. Schloss, who has been North for the past two weeks planning his campaign for the next theatrical season, returned last night, and to a Star representative unfolded most of his plans for next season and which plans show that Mr. Schloss' theatrical enterprises will be much more numerous and more elaborate than any previous season.

While North Mr. Schloss purchased all right and the entire production of "Coming Through the Rye," one of the most beautiful and successful musical comedies ever presented. The piece has been seen in the larger cities only and is pronounced a gem in every way. The production is magnificent and cost a fortune. In addition to the gorgeous stage mountings the production includes the spotless white horse "Castle" which is used for the prima donna's entrance. For the leading role Mr. Schloss has engaged one of the most beautiful girls as well as gifted singers on the light opera stage today. The cast has not been completed, but will include only metropolitan favorites. The company including its own musicians and working staff will number 58 people and require a 70-foot baggage car for transportation of the production.

While North Mr. Schloss also arranged for the organization of a musical comedy stock company to open Latta Park, Charlotte, June 7th. This organization, to be known as the S. A. Schloss Musical Co., will be under the management of Mr. John L. Crovo, the resident manager at Charlotte and the company headed by James B. Mackey, the original star of "Grimes Cellar Door," the piece which made him famous and made millions laugh.

Mr. Schloss also did much extensive bookings for his 14 theatres and made preparations for his vaudeville houses. The Schloss Circuit is now made up of 14 theatres, located in Virginia, Tennessee, North and South Carolina. He added to his list on the way up North by securing a lease of the Goldsboro theatre and intends to greatly improve that playhouse.

So after he closed this contract he mapped out a fine route for some swell attractions, making arrangements for them to jump direct from Virginia to his first theatre, Wilson, then to Goldsboro, to Newbern, to Wilmington, and then swing around the circuit. Of course, he paid especial attention to what he considers his big, or banner towns, like Charlotte, Raleigh, Asheville, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Danville, Va., and this city.

Relative to this city, Mr. Schloss' answers to different questions propounded indicate that Wilmington may well look forward to a fine theatre for next year. He looked over plans and made arrangements looking forward to the remodeling of the Academy here and expects an expert in theatrical lines to be in Wilmington within the next week or ten days. He intends to have turned out an up-to-date theatre. In fact, Mr. Schloss said: "I think the playgoers of Wilmington can look forward to virtually seeing a new theatre and in talking with the managers North I assured them that such work would be done in remodeling and improving the Academy that we would virtually have a new theatre in Wilmington for next season."

Extensive improvements are contemplated for several of the larger theatres and this together with all the details or organizing and getting together the "Coming Thru the Rye Co.," will leave Mr. Schloss very few idle days, he, however, hopes to get off the later part of June for a few weeks' sojourn with friends at Mt. Clemons, Mich.

CHILDREN WHO ARE SICKLY

Mothers who value their own comfort and the welfare of their children, should never be without a box of Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children, for use throughout the season. ## VEGETABLE SHIPMENTS

Car of Beets From East Wilmington Yesterday—Around Rocky Point.

The last car of beets for the season was shipped from East Wilmington to Philadelphia yesterday morning. The prices have remained satisfactory for this vegetable, four cents per bunch being quoted by Philadelphia on Monday. East Wilmington truckers are now beginning to ship beans, which are quoted at from $1.50 to $1.75 per basket.

A postal card from Rocky Point says that Calvin Smith, colored, shipped the first Irish potatoes from there Tuesday morning and that Mr. John B. Davis got off the first dewberries raised in Topsail. Mr. W. W. Pearsall shipped the first huckleberries from Holly township. The "Neck" people on Ripley's Creek are getting off the first of the strawberry crown crop, which are described "big as apples."

INSPECTING LOCAL CRAFT

United States Steamboat Inspectors F. B. Rice and J. T. Borden, of Charleston, spent yesterday in the city on an official inspection trip, having passed upon the steamer Madeleine, Captain John S. Sellers and the steam barge Wm. M., Captain M. Kermon, owned by the Acme Tea Chest Company. While here the inspectors also restored passenger license to the steamer Rosa, Captain Charles Wessell, this privilege having been withdrawn some time ago. The license restored permits the Rosa 70 instead of 100 passengers as heretofore. Captain Borden also gave the examination to two marine engineers for promotion of rank.

OPENING WAS BRILLIANT

May Music Festival Inaugurated in a Blaze of Glory Last Night. Marred Only by a Single Incident.

"The night shall be filled with music, and the cares which infest the day, Shall fold their tents like Arabs, and as silently steal away."

The above quotation from Longfellow is peculiarly appropriate on the programme of the big May Music Festival which opened in the Academy of Music last night under the auspices of the North Carolina Sorosis. It was "Grand Opera Night" and it was a brilliant musical event, fully up to the expectations of the music-lovers of the city who had awaited with intense interest the coming of the date of the event heralded for the past two or three weeks.

The audience was large, filling almost every seat in the auditorium, cultured, discriminative and representative of the lovers of the best in the art of music. The deep appreciation of the audience was signified by frequent and prolonged applause. From the overture, "William Tell," to the closing number, "Rharockz," by Liszt, the audience was held spell-bound by the charm of the excellent music. The programme was varied and was such as to please every one and there was not a dull moment during the evening.

Members of Sorosis are receiving the heartiest congratulations from the music lovers of the city for bringing to this city such a delightful company of musicians, and the people of the city have proved by the large attendance last night that they are capable of appreciating the best in the way of music and that the Festival can be made an annual affair.

On account of the indisposition of Mr. Edward Strong, tenor, the programme had to be revised and it was none the less pleasing. Mr. Strong appeared upon the stage once, in a quartette, at the conclusion of which Mr. Martin made the unpleasant announcement that he had been suddenly overcome by an infection of the throat and could not possibly reappear during the evening and that the numbers in which he was to take part would be supplied by the orchestra. It was announced after the concert last night that Mr. Strong, who had to visit a specialist twice yesterday, would very likely be able to take his place on the programme tonight and this will come as pleasant news to those who heard him in the quartette last night.

The concert opened with an overture, "William Tell," (Rossini), by the Pittsburg Festival Orchestra in which the thunder storm and trumpet call to freedom won the admiration of the entire audience and called for an encore. The orchestra responded with "Badinaze," (Herbert), which also proved enjoyable. Following this number came the quartette—From "Rigolletto" (Verdi), by Miss Florence Hinkle, soprano, Miss Ada Campbell Hussy, contralto, Mr. Edward Strong, tenor ,and Mr. Frederic Martin, bass, which fairly brought down the house and the applause lasted for some moments. The audience expected a response and would probably have gotten it had it not been for the failure of Mr. Strong's voice at this juncture.

The superb contralto voice of Miss Hussey was shown to splendid advantage in an aria, "Don Fatale," (Verdi), She captivated the audience with her magnificent voice and graceful manner and was forced to respond to an encore with piano accompaniment. Her voice was also advantageously displayed later on the programme. "Mme. Butterfly," (Puccins), by the Orchestra, proved one of the most delightful numbers rendered and was given in place of a duet announced by Messrs. Strong and Martin. Miss Hinkle's debut as a soloist was in "Louise" (Charpentrer), and she won the hearts and sympathies of the entire audience with her sweet soprano. So well did she please that the audience would not be satisfied with one number. The orchestra started up but the sound of the instruments was drowned in the deafening applause calling for the reappearance of the artist. Realizing that nothing else would do she gracefully returned and rendered another delightful selection, which was also greeted with loud applause. "Grand March," (Wagner) was then rendered by the orchestra, completing the first part of the programme.

The second part opened with "Petit Pas" (Sudessi), by the orchestra. This was such a splendidly rendered number that the audience sought more and the orchestra responded with a pleasing selection, following which Mr. Franz Kohler, concert master, gave a violin solo "Czardas Scenes" (Hubay), and received one of the ovations of the evening. He is a master of the instrument and this fact was readily recognized by the audience. He sought to escape with this number, but was not so lucky, finally responding with "The Swan," (St. Sains) with harp accompaniment. Still this did not suffice for there was a great clamor for another, but this time the audience was doomed to disappointment.

The audience had another treat in store for it in a duet, "Gypsy Song," (Brahms) by Misses Hussey and Kindle, in which both did fine work and added to their laurels, won earlier in the evening.

Mr. Martin, who has one of the richest bass voices heard in this section in a long time, if ever, was heard in an aria, "Du Tambuor Major," from "De la Caid," (Thomas), and his superior voice brought him at once in the favor of his audience who listened with keen appreciation. Mr. Martin kindly responded to the repeated demands for another selection. He has an unusually fine voice, well trained, and was in splendid shape last night.

The first concert of the great event came to a close with the rendition by the orchestra of "Rhapsockz" (Liszt), and it was with reluctance that the audience departed.

The orchestra is developed to a high state of perfection and its work was by no means the least feature of last night's concert. The conductor, Mr. Bernthaler, has but few equals and his splendid work was plainly seen. Through him the orchestra is second to none that has visited this city.

This afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock, the second concert will be given. It will be known as the "Orchestra Concert." Those who attend will spend a few hours of rare enjoyment.

The closing concert will be given tonight, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, and is designated as "Oratorio Night". It is expected that standing room will be at a premium when the concert opens tonight.

DEATH OF MRS. M. M. MAHN.

Estimable Woman Passed Away Yesterday Morning—Funeral Today.

Her many friends in this city were shocked yesterday to learn of the death of Mrs. M. M. Mahn, relict of Mr. W. D. Mahn, which occurred at her home, 413 Red Cross street, at 7:15 o'clock yesterday morning, following an illness of several days. Mrs. Mahn had been a member of Grace Methodist Church for a long time and was highly esteemed by all who knew her.

The deceased is survived by two daughters, Miss Hattie M. Mahn, of this city, and Mrs. Flora M. Kendall, of Goldsboro, and three sisters, Mrs. W. H. Yopp, of this city; Mrs. A. H. Evans, of Town Creek, and Mrs. Isabel V. Kinsolving, of Kenneth, Mo.

The funeral services will be conducted from the residence at 10:30 o'clock this morning by Rev. W. L. Cuninggim, presiding elder, and Rev. T. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Methodist Church.

WILL OPEN TUESDAY.

Many Improvements Made in Marion Sprunt Home for Sick Children.

The Marion Sprunt Home for sick children, at Wrightsville Beach, will open for the season next Tuesday. Many improvements have recently been made and the institution is better prepared to care for the little patients than ever before. Mrs. Helen Lane, who filled the place of matron so acceptably last year, has accepted the place for this season and has already entered upon her work and is getting everything in readiness for the opening. Miss Julia Saunders will be head nurse with a competent corps of assistants.

The New Hanover County Medical Society has appointed the following as staff of visiting physicians: Drs. C. T. Nesbitt, C. T. Harper, R. H. Bellamy, M. M. Caldwell and J. C. Wessell.

THE PRISON EVANGELIST.

Rev. Thomas Elgar Here to Conduct Meetings—Yoke Fellows Band.

Rev. Thomas Elgar, the Prison Evangelist, who is widely known throughout several States, arrived in the city yesterday to conduct meetings here during the next few days. He made a talk at the Y. M. C. A. shop meeting yesterday and will probably preach at several city churches.

The Yoke Fellows Band, a religious organization of the Y. M. C. A. has been recently formed with quite a few members. This is the first organization of its kind in the city and the members of the Association are manifesting much interest in its progress. The officers are R. A. Coleman, president; M. H. Brimmer, vice president; J. T. Jerome, secretary.

GRAND OPENING OF LUMINA.

Thursday of Next Week Will be the Date—To be Brilliant Affair.

As previously noted, Thursday, June 3rd, is the date for the grand opening of Lumina at Wrightsville Beach and the affair will be made notable in the history of the resort with a brilliant dance that evening. The full orchestra of ten pieces will have reported by that time and this will be a long ways the best musical organization ever seen at Wrightsville. Full announcement as to the opening will be made in due time.

Mr. Henry Sharp in Denver.

The many friends in this city of Mr. Henry T. Sharp, son of Capt. John H. Sharp, formerly of the Seaboard Air Line, will be interested to learn of his success in the real estate and fire insurance business in Denver, Col., where he recently opened an office. Mr. Sharp is a man of broad experience in the real estate business, having worked with Geo. R. Read & Co., of New York City, and with Ferris & Conaway, of Denver, and other big concerns. His friends in Wilmington hope that he will enjoy continued success in his adopted State.

Hanover Seaside Club Open.

The Hanover Seaside Club on Wrightsville Beach was opened Tuesday and members are now privileged to go down and spend a day at the beach at any time they desire. The House Committee this year is composed of Messrs. William Tienken, chairman; William Mahler, J. D. Dosher, Jr., John Kuhlken and E. F. O. Banck. The season promises to be a most successful one.

Will Erect Residence.

A valuable building site has been purchased from the Price estate by Miss Annie Kidder, the deal being negotiated by M. C. Darby & Co., and is located on Fifth between Market and Dock streets. The property sold is 40x120 feet in size and brought a good price. Miss Kidder will soon begin the erection of a handsome new residence, plans for which will soon be in readiness.

Moonlight on the River.

The Baraca Class of Grace Methodist church promises all who go on the moonlight excursion on the steamer Wilmington tomorrow evening, a most delightful outing. A number of pleasing features have been arranged for the trip and a good crowd is expected.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The following rural carriers have been appointed: Rocky Point, Route 2, Robert D. Pearsall, carrier, Richard Croom, substitute; Rosindale, Route 1, John M. Meshaw, carrier, F. T. Perry, substitute.

—Durham Sun: Durham has made a bid for the Knights of Pythias orphanage, subscribing $6,000 and donating 50 acres of land. It is estimated that the land is worth $100 an acre, so that Durham really has a chance. Other towns will doubtless do as well.

—Winston-Salem Journal: It will be good news to the Methodists of this conference to know that the children's home will open its doors for business within four months. The Methodists and their friends have worked zealously for the orphanage and its early opening will be a source of much gratification.

—Salisbury, May 25.—At a called meeting of the county commissioners a franchise was granted Messrs. N. B. McCanless, J. K. Link and C. L. Welsh to build a car line from Salisbury to Granite Quarry and Faith, into the heart of the granite belt. Work is to begin by June 24 and the line is to be completed by January 1. The men behind this movement mean business and work is to begin at once and be pushed to quick completion.

—Greensboro, May 25.—"The negro must climb by faith in himself," declared President James B. Dudley, of the Agricultural and Mechanical College for the negro at the annual meeting of the Mechanical Literary Society tonight. He condemned the idea of the negroes sitting around complaining when they could go to work and do something for themselves and race.

—Salisbury, May 25.—At a large non-partisan gathering of citizens in the court house tonight presided over by L. H. Clement, ex-Mayor A. H. Boyden was presented with a beautiful silver service from citizens as a token of their love and esteem. The set is inscribed, "A. H. Boyden, who as a private citizen and chief executive has ever contributed zealous interest, unselfish concern and devoted services to the glory of Salisbury. From a grateful constituency, 1891-1909."

—Salisbury, May 25.—That the reorganization of the Whitney Company and early resumption of work at the plant at the Narrows is coming is almost certain. A party of capitalists and others interested have been inspecting the properties and it is said that the anouncement of the beginning of the completion of this mammoth power plant is looked for within a short time. This would mean wonders for this immediate section and would give employment to hundreds of men. The work has progressed too far and too much is at stake for the project to be abandoned.

—Greensboro, May 25.—The 17th annual commencement of the North Carolina State Normal and Industrial College came to a close today with the graduating exercises, which were held in the auditorium of the students' building at 11 o'clock this morning, when degrees were conferred upon the graduates and the baccalaureate address was delivered by Dr. Talcott Williams, editor of the Philadelphia Press. Prior to the formal exercises, President Foust made a statement concerning the work of the college that was very gratifying to the friends of the institution. During the past year 602 students were enrolled in the college proper and 377 in the practice and observation school, making the total enrollment 979, which exceeded by 49 the enrollment of any previous year. The recent Legislature increased the annual appropriation to the college from $70,000 to $75,000 and made a special appropriation of $52,000 for the enlargement and better equipment of the plant. During the past year the McIver Memorial (or science) building was erected and many improvements made which add greatly to the facilities of the institution.

—Baltimore, May 24.—Mr. Charles M. Boyd, of Newbern, N. C., who holds a clerical position with the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, and Miss Cornelia J. McLaughlin, of Hagerstown, who went to Middletown, Md., yesterday, to be married, had an exciting experience. When Rev. Dr. George A. Snyder, of Christ Reformed church, of Middletown, and late president of Catawba college, Newton, N. C., was called on to perform the ceremony, it was found that the groom had procured the license in Hagerstown, therefore it was necessary to go to Washington county to tie the knot, as Middletown is in Frederick county. A livery team was procured and the young couple, Dr. Snyder, his little daughter, Charlotte, and the driver, behind two spry young horses in new harness, started for the summit of South Mountain, six miles west of Middletown, the dividing line between Frederick and Washington counties. Going down Main street the horses became unmanageable and a serious runaway was narrowly averted. Four or five men ran into the street and seized hold of the horses, which plunged from one side of the street to the other and at one time tilted the carriage until it almost upset. Mr. Boyd and Miss McLaughlin quickly alighted from the carriage and took a seat on a porch until another and more gentle team could be procured. A large crowd of people assembled. Later the party resumed the journey and the couple were married at Dahlen, the Summer home of Mrs. Ulrica Dahlgren Pierce, on South Mountain. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd returned to Hagerstown in the evening and will leave in a day or two for Newbern. Both suffered from the shock.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 26.—A strong advance in the cotton market on bullish weather and crop advices was followed by quite a sharp break in the late trading and the close was barely steady net 9 points lower to 3 points higher, the more active crop months being net unchanged to 1 point lower.

The market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 4 points and during the early session sold about 6 to 8 points net higher on somewhat better cables than expected and the heavy rains reported in Eastern and Central sections of the belt. There were numerous crop complaints from points in the Mississippi Valley based upon excessive moisture, grassy fields and damage from overflows but after showing the advance noted, prices gradually eased off under realizing for over the approaching holidays and the government report. There was, however, no aggressive short selling in the face of unfavorable crop news and shortly after midday the market had a very sharp advance, following a private condition report showing a reduction of 5 per cent. in acreage, and an average condition of only 83.2 per cent. October contracts sold at 10.97 and December at 10.98 on this bulge, or about 9 to 11 points net higher and within a couple of points of the high record for the season.

Later offerings were heavy, although they continued to be chiefly in the way of precautionary profit-taking and July liquidation and the market broke ten points or more from the best point, in consequence. Southern spot markets officially reported early were generally unchanged. One of the private condition reports issued during the day placed the condition at 77.1 per cent., and claimed an increase of 84-100 of 1 per cent. in acreage.

Receipts at the ports today 23,872 bales against 18,478 last week and 10,673 last year; for the week 85,000 bales against 88,831 last week and 64,588 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 6,932 bales against 5,931 last year.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands 11.65; middling gulf 11.90; no sales. Futures opened steady and closed barely steady.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 26.—Cotton goods market is very firm. Osnaburgs, drills and ticketed bleached sheetings are being ordered more freely. The new Fall suiting fabrics of the American Printing Company had been priced at 4 3-4c. Silk, ribbons and broad silks in primary markets are very quiet. Knit goods for next Spring will be shown very generally to the trade next month, beginning June 7th.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 26.—United States Steel today followed the daily custom it has established now by more than a week of examples of selling at a new high record on each successive day. Yesterday and today the addition to the record has been only 1-8 and today was accomplished only on the opening sales. After that the price gravitated with the rest of the market to a lower level. Most of the proceedings of the day at the stock exchange consisting in trading in Reading or in watching the transactions in that stock, which overshadowed the whole market and weighed on it with depressing effect. The weakness of the stock was traceable to the lack of definiteness about any information which has been vouchsafed regarding the supposed deal. Outside news was of very light effect on the market. Announcement was made of the agreement between the Hill and Harriman interest for the joint use of the Northern Pacific tracks beyond. Tacoma. Coupled with this announcement was one that E. H. Harriman had made his last intended visit to his office before his departure for Europe on June 1. A lively speculation in copper industrial abroad resulted from the condition of the metal trade but New York coppers were unresponsive.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, were $3,362,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 522,400 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 26.—Money on call easy 1 3-4 to 2 per cent., ruling rate 1 3-4, closing bid 1 3-4, offered at 2 per cent. Time loans steady but very dull; sixty days 2 to 2 1-2 per cent., and ninety days 2 1-4 to 2 1-2 per cent. six months 3 to 3 1-4 per cent. Close: Prime mercantile paper 3 1-2 per cent., sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8625 to 4.8630 for sixty day bills and at 4.8785 for demand. Commercial bills 4.85 3-4 to 4.86 1-8. Bar silver 52 5-8. Mexican dollars 44.

cers opposed his proposition. "I can only see one answer," he said, "and that is that they are weak and are afraid to antagonize this great commercial power."

Condemning in vigorous language the fraudulent practices of the Sugar Trust in the evasion of duty, Senator Burrows defended the sugar schedule of the Aldrich tariff bill in the interest of the beet sugar interests of Michigan.

"The problem confronting us today," said Mr. Burrows, "is whether we shall produce the sugar we need or whether we shall send abroad every year $100,000,000 to purchase this sugar."

He maintained that within the United States alone more sugar could be produced from beets than is now needed by the entire world.

Replying to a speech made by Senator Clay, of Georgia, last Wednesday in which he attacked the so-called Sugar Trust and declared that Joseph F. Smith, head of the Mormon Church, fixed the price of beets in favor of the beet sugar factories of Utah, Senator Smoot, of Utah, declared that if the latter statement were true "Mr. Smith might justly be hailed as the farmer's friend, since the farmers are doing so well in beet culture that they are constantly clamoring for greater beet acreage and more factories.

As to the $20,000 annual salary which Senator Clay asserted Mr. Smith received as president of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company, Senator Smoot asserted that President Smith's yearly salary does not exceed $2,400.

He argued that the surest way to curb the power of the Sugar Trust would be to develop the domestic sugar industry to the point where we shall produce within our borders all the sugar we consume. This would require from 350 to 400 beet sugar factories, and these, the Senator claimed, could not be consolidated into a trust.

He declared that neither the cane industry of the South nor the beet sugar industry could survive at present under a reduction of tariff. He asserted that the American Sugar Refining Company, whenever guilty, should be held civilly and criminally responsible. He added that Senator Clay's assertion that the Sugar Trust owns, either directly or indirectly, large tracts of land in Hawaii, Porto Rico and Cuba did not have a particle of evidence to prove it. He said that he had in his possession affidavits from most of the beet companies in the United States stating that they are not controlled by the American Sugar Refining Company. He called attention to the fact that whereas, during the past few years flour has almost doubled in value and meat and clothing and other necessaries of life have increased substantially in price, sugar costs less today than it did ten years ago.

When Mr. Smoot concluded the Senate adjourned.

should make their way in the world and show the usefulness in the community. The truth is that the greatest hope that the negro as, because he lives chiefly in the South, is the friendship and the sympathetic interest of the white men with whom he lives.

"I know it is not the habit to think so, but it is growing and one of the things that misleads us most is the desperate, the extreme statements of white men from the South on the subject, but really they don't mean what they say. They are the last people that want to be taken literally. They have a theory that it may give them sometimes a little boost politically to talk in extremes and superlatives, but I have heard expressions from leading negroes in various cities that confirm my judgment that the situation is growing better and better. I remember hearing the Rev. Dr. Walker that negro who went abroad and preached in Spurgeon's pulpit and was worthy to preach in that pulpit, express his friendship for the white people of Augusta, where I spent five or six weeks, and express his view of the proposition that the negro race should be moved to some other than this. He said they were mighty well satisfied to live in Augusta until they did go to glory. That is the same sentiment I found in Charlotte and in Petersburg."

BANKERS HEAR ADDRESSES

Interesting Session of Association Follow by Reception.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charlotte, N. C., May 26.—An intellectual feast of the best exposition of business methods in banking and the best array of speakers that could by any chance have been gathered together characterized the second session of the North Carolina Bankers' Association convention this morning. The speakers were Herbert W. Jackson, of Raleigh, president of the Association; A. W. Hunt, of Henderson, secretary and treasurer of the organization; William H. White, of Salisbury; Judge Robert W. Winston, of Raleigh, whose paper on "What the Public Owes the Banker, and What the Banker Owes the Public" was undoubtedly the finest judicial and practical exposition of the subject that the convention has ever had the opportunity to listen to, and W. O. Jones, assistant cashier of the National Park Bank, of New York, who spoke on the "Country Banker."

The bankers enjoyed a reception this evening in the parlors of the Manufacturers Club.

RAILROAD BONDS LOST

Three Votes Short of Majority in Bladen—Outside Influences.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., May 26.—The special election in Hollow, Bethel and Elizabethtown townships, in Bladen county, called for the purpose of submitting the question of issuing bonds to aid in the construction of a railroad through these townships to Elizabethtown, N. C., the county seat of Bladen, was lost on Monday by three votes. The road was to have been operated from Hope Mills to Elizabethtown, and would have opened up a fine section of country.

The people of this section deeply resent the outside influences that were brought to bear against this proposition from Wilmington and certain points along the Seaboard road and greatly appreciate the good influence that was lent by certain broad-minded men along the Seaboard and from other places who worked for the interest of the public and not for their own selfish ends. The failure of this election is looked upon as nothing short of a calamity. The total registered vote in the three townships was 350, of which 176 were necessary to carry the issue. For the bonds 173 were cast and 135 against but the 42 voters, who stayed at home counted against the measure.

FRICTION IN CENSUS BUREAU.

Director North Resigns Rather Than be Bossed.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 26.—S. N. D. North, Director of the Census, has tendered his resignation to President Taft and it was accepted today. His resignation is a direct result of his recent controversy with eSCretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel.

Director North tendered his resignation and the name of Mr. E. Dana Drand, now deputy commissioner of corporations, has been sent in to the Senate to succeed him. Mr. North's resignation was based on the ground that on account of conditions existing and likely to continue, his administration of the census office would not probably be successful.

It had been supposed up to within the last few days that the controversy between Secretary Nagel and Director North had been amicably adjusted. The friction between the two continued, however, and at last Secretary Nagel put the matter squarely up to President Taft, saying that either he or MBr. North would have to leave the service as existing conditions between them were impossible.

Over two miles of track of the Virginia Anthracite Railway were washed out, bridges were damaged and the Merrimac Coal Mines near Blacksburg, Va., were flooded by a cloud burst yesterday afternoon. Officials of the road say it will be at least five days before the track can be put in shape for traffic again.

Anderson Batted Out.

Goldsboro, N. C., May 26.—Wilson's mighty Anderson was batted out of the box by the Goldsboro Giants here today in a ten-inning game in which errors were many, allowing Wilson to tie the score in the sixth and again in the seventh. Otis had his pitching hand hurt in the sixth but up to that time only two hits had been made off his delivery. Deviney replaced him, pitching the last three innings without a hit. President T. M. Washington, of Wilson, witnessed the game. Score:

Warwick Lost His Game.

Fayetteville, N. C., May 26.—Warwick, Fayetteville's new twirler, lately awarded to the local club by Secretary Farrel, held Rocky Mount to two hits and fielded brilliantly, but lost by a hit batsman, a triple and an error coming together in the game today, the score being 2 to 0. Ogara won his own game in the second tripling with Moran on first, scoring himself on Carclan's bad throw. Lohr, of the Virginia League, joined the Highlanders today. Score:

Rocky Mount...020 000 000—2 2 0
Fayetteville ....000 000 000—0 6 6

Batteries—Ogara and Stephens; Warwick and Duhrlin. Umpire McLaughlin.

At the Bijou.

"A Baby's Shoe," a beautiful life story of a long separated brother and sister, is the feature of the bill at the Bijou today. It is one of the most beautiful motion picture stories ever portrayed, dealing as it does with a subject of the most profound nature. The story is a touching one and will appeal to all. It tells the story of a young widowed mother of two children, who is forced by extreme poverty to part with one of her children, a baby girl, by placing it in a basket on the door steps of a wealthy banker. She keeps one of the shoes as a memento. The brother and sister meet again 15 years later, fall in love and on the eve of their marriage they discover their relationship. The sister becomes a nun and the brother is ordained as a priest.

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Wilmington Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Wilmington readers.

R. F. Rowan, 603 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I have no reason to alter my high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I publicly expressed some years ago, after I had used them with good results. Since then many people have called on me and asked if the statement I gave were true and it has always afforded me pleasure to answer in the affirmative. As the result of a strain, I suffered a great deal from backache. At times I was so lame that I could hardly stand up straight and my back was so weak that I could not lift. I used plasters and liniments but they did me no good and when I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store. I felt relieved after a few doses and continued to take them until my back regained its strength and the pains disappeared. Since then there has been no sign of kidney complaint and I firmly believe my cure is a permanent one."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
